The Most Powerful, Often Neglected Weapon

I recently read Rev. Dr. Marcus Carlson's book, Habits of Healthy Churches. He visited our congregation and led a seminar in July. Our staff is studying his book as well! One of the key statements that Marcus makes is "apart from the work of God through the Gospel, health trumps all."

I have been working with Marcus for a few years now and have heard him speak about the importance of church health long before this book was published. Generally speaking, if we take care of our physical health, we will live longer. And of course health starts with habits. Healthy habits lead to healthy people. Healthy habits also lead to healthy churches. And healthy churches have a greater kingdom impact and will be around for your children and grandchildren. Isn't that what we all desire?

There is one habit in particular that I want to address in this article. This stuck out to me from all the other habits, and it is perhaps the simplest, yet neglected weapon that the church has.

⇒ Healthy Habit #1 - Healthy churches are praying churches

We may think that we are a praying church, and in some cases, we are. I know many in our congregation pray. We pray every week together in worship. What I'm asking our congregation to do is pray for our church persistently. Pray for our church on a daily basis! The Apostle Paul tells us to pray in all circumstances always.

Pray for God's will to be done at our church. Pray for your pastors as we prepare our sermons and lead the congregation. Pray for the staff. Pray for the preschool teachers and children. Pray for lost people in our community to be found. Pray for those in our congregation who are homebound or sick. Pray for our young families. Pray that our congregation looks like Jesus to visitors. Pray that with the help of the Holy Spirit, we partner with Jesus in fulfilling the Great Commission. Pray constantly. Pray boldly. Pray with passion.

How silly would it be for a knight to have a weapon and not draw it going into battle against an enemy. Well, we have an enemy who is throwing arrows constantly at the church. How silly would it be for us not to use prayer in our constant battle against Satan?

Healthy churches are praying churches.

-By the Grace of God and with the help of the Holy Spirit, may we be a church that prays constantly and seeks God's will.

FUN TIMES!

Come “FLY” With Us!

September has ushered in both the start of a new and fresh school year along with new leadership in our group. If you have a moment, please tell Andrew what an awesome job he has done in years past! I know it hasn't been easy for him to give up his position as Youth Minister as he loves our youth. It's clear to see his passion for them to grow in their faith as Christians. I'd like to personally thank Andrew for his support for me during my transition as the new Youth and Family Minister. He has been very helpful and encouraging. While he is currently serving as Intern Pastor while taking seminary courses, he will still participate in some of our events and pop in from time to time on Wednesday nights. Also, thank you Pastor Dan and our amazing staff; Angie Rhode, Kim Kautzsch, Lisa Owen, Roxanne Heckmann, and Carol Baker for patiently explaining a lot of details about day to day operations at the church and much more! Thank you to the friendly faces who are often around our church volunteering in several important capacities. Thank you for making me feel welcome - it is a privilege to be on your team!

The youth and I are gradually getting to know each other, and I can tell you that I am already starting to get attached to them. They are awesome! We recently began a new book we will be working through on Wednesday nights called, 52 Lies Every Parent Should Tell their Kids. Of course, I am not trying to replace anyone's parents. This book does an excellent job bringing out the many lies the Devil likes to tell us such as “Every Way is the Right Way” and “There is No Absolute Truth.” We will work to uncover these lies little by little and seek the truth from the Word of God. After all, a Lie Exposed is Powerless! The end of September will bring with it a solid plan of social and service events for the school year. Information is coming soon about a Pool Party in September, so stay tuned.

REQUEST for HELP: We're hoping and praying for some new volunteers to serve our youth. One area of need is Faith Coaches. We currently have three fabulous Faith Coaches, and a couple of them simply need a break from time to time which we all understand. We also need adults to participate in our social and service events outside of Wednesday FLY Nights. Finally, there is always a need for meals to be provided for our Wednesday FLY Nights. Please reach out to me if you would like to serve in one or more of these ways. Thank you for considering these requests.

Joyfully!

Mission: More Than a Middle Name

As an association of congregations, I love our name: Lutheran Congregations in Mission for Christ. It brilliantly captures our aspirations: a network of autonomous congregations united by a Lutheran theological foundation and a common commitment to a greater mission for Jesus Christ in the world!

We recognize four core values that shape our association. We are 1) Free in Christ, 2) Accountable to One Another, 3) Rooted in the Scriptures and Lutheran Confessions, and 4) Working Together to Fulfill Christ Great Commission to Go and Make Disciples of All Nations. While all values are important, it is the fourth one that defines our purpose... our mission.

Yet as I survey our congregations, this fourth value is far less obvious. If you were to ask someone to observe our member congregations and describe our association based on what our churches are doing and how they are spending time and resources, I doubt that our mission to go make disciples of all nations would be noted as our clear and obvious purpose.

This realization has grown clearer to me in recent months. I came across an LCMC congregation's website that publicly claims the first three of our association's core values while completely omitting any mention of the fourth! Additionally, during a meeting of LCMC pastors, a colleague stated that a Lutheran understanding of mission is simply the proper proclamation of the gospel and administration of the sacraments. I respectfully challenged this notion, expressing that although fulfilling the Great Commission includes proper gospel proclamation and sacrament administration, these actions alone do not equate to going and making disciples of all nations. We need to take Jesus' words in Matthew 28 seriously.

I lament that, in an association that professes the centrality of our mission for Christ in its name and beautifully articulates how we are working together to carryout Christ's Great Commission as the fulfillment of this mission, mission may be little more than a middle name to us!

So, I ask you, pastors and churches: what does your church's mission look like? If an unbiased observer were to spend time within your community to draft a report describing who you are as a church and what your church is about, what would it say? How is your church working together to fulfill Christ's Great Commission to go make disciples of all nations?

This, my friends, is our mission... our purpose. I pray that we don't forget it, dumb it down, or drop it off the list. Mission is more than our middle name!
