From the Desk of Pastor Jeremy:

Springtime is a time of change. From baseball now occurring to the first plantings in the garden, this “lengthening” of sunlight creates new energy. Indeed, this change became one of the origins of the English Word “Lent” which corresponds to middle English “lente” (springtime) and old High German “lenzin” (“spring”).

To that, we continue to have springtime change in our congregation as well. First, I invite you to come join us for our Wednesday Lenten services with supper at 6:00pm and service at 7:00pm. We will look at the Small Catechism; you can find an online, mobile-friendly option at <https://www.solapublishing.com/small-catechism/316.html>.

Second, we also have changes in our congregational staff. After diligence with both council and HR committee, we have opened our application for a youth minister position. You can see details at <https://faithsequin.org/youth-minister-opening/>. If you know of someone who wants a place to teach while sharing Jesus in a flexible work environment, send the information their way.

Finally, as we look toward Holy Week, we will partner with First Methodist Church for some joint services. We will host Maundy Thursday on April 2, while First Methodist will host Good Friday on April 3. For Maundy Thursday, Pastor Ray Perales of First Methodist will preach here, while I will preach at First Methodist on Good Friday.

In all, I see this opportunity as a wonderful way to partner with other churches here in Seguin who also wish to proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ who died and rose for your sins.

Overall, may God continue to walk with you in these spring Lenten days and remind you of the ultimate promises we have in our Lord Jesus who died and rose for you.

In Christ,
Pastor Jeremy

Stewardship Ministry Team – “Share Your Gifts”

Thank you all for another successful Commitment Sunday breakfast and Worship Service. The theme for this year was “Share Your Gifts,” in other words, your time, talents and treasure. Tables were decorated with little treasure chests, tiny gifts and cards with Bible verses and hearts on them. A big thank you to all the Ministry Teams and other organizations at Faith for putting up such neat and informative table displays. Each group was given a couple of minutes to share what they do to serve at Faith and in the community and to invite others to join them.

The Stewardship Team, along with others who were willing to share their gifts of cooking and serving, prepared and served a full, delicious breakfast to about 135 people.

Thank you so much to those who helped in the kitchen. Then we had to set up extra tables and chairs for the Worship Service. There were 181 in attendance at the service. During the service, a 2025 pledge cards was symbolically burned, and members brought their new pledges and Time & Talent sheets forward.

God has blessed and gifted each of us with everything we have, and we should respond with thankfulness and joy by sharing our gifts – our time, talents and treasure – in service to the Lord, here at Faith and in our community and the world.

ACCOMPANIST OPPORTUNITY: JOIN OUR MUSIC MINISTRY

Faith Lutheran Church is seeking a skilled accompanist (piano and/or organ) to support Sunday worship services, with occasional weekday services as required by the liturgical season (such as Lent). The congregation is also in need of an accompanist for the adult choir.

While one individual filling both roles is preferred, the responsibilities may be divided into two separate positions for qualified candidates. The adult choir rehearses once a week and performs on an average of once a month during Sunday worship. Both positions will be available beginning in June or July, 2026. For more information, please call 830-379-7036 or email:

Faith Lutheran Church and First Methodist Church of Seguin are joyfully partnering for Holy Week 2026!

We're excited to come together as one community in Christ for two special services:

Maundy Thursday – April 2, 7:00 PM at Faith Lutheran. Join us here at Faith for a joint service with our friends from First Methodist. Holy Communion will be shared, and Rev. Ray Perales will bring the evening's message.

Good Friday – April 3, 7:00 PM at First Methodist (710 N. Austin St.)

We'll gather across town at First Methodist as Pastor Jeremy Pedersen offers the Good Friday sermon—because if there's ever a time to come together, it's this sacred night.

We look forward to worshipping, collaborating, and celebrating the hope of Easter with our brothers and sisters in Christ. After all, if heaven is one big family, we might as well start practicing now!

Community Food Distribution –Volunteers Needed!

Our Social Concerns Ministry Team is gearing up for the next Community Food Distribution Day on Saturday, March 7, and we'd love to have you join the fun!

We need VOLUNTEERS—helping hands, friendly smiles, and anyone willing to lift, carry, or simply look supportive. There's a sign-up sheet waiting for you in the Narthex (it's very lonely... please visit it.)

ALSO: Please bring your stash of plastic grocery bags—we go through them so quickly, you'd think they were on a buy one, get one sale. Faster than you can say "paper or plastic?"

Speaking of groceries:

Why did the grocery bag get promoted?

Because it always carried its weight. ▣

This is a family-friendly event, so bring the whole crew! Kids, grandparents, teens—everyone can help. And be warned:

If you're not careful, you might actually have fun.

A Lenten Invitation: Set Free to Witness

At this time in the life of our nation and all that is happening throughout the world, it is most appropriate that we remember in our prayers those in the military and their families. Please remember in your daily prayers the following military personnel and their families:

Ann Sagebiel
Stoney Portis
Todd Wegner
David Daniels
Raul Davila III
Tony Leal, Jr.
Shannon Nance
Brad Dillon
Victor J. Rodriguez
Amanda Sagebiel
Cameron Koehler
Michael McBride
Jason Sagebiel
Michael Fruehling
Shelly Park
Ricky Fryer
Brian Branin
Jason Hubbard
Lance England
Kevin Pfluger
Jeremy Pedersen

Each year in the season of Lent, Christians are invited to a familiar rhythm: slow down, reflect, repent, and return to the Lord. For many, Lent can feel like a somber season as it is often marked by fasting, self-examination, and reflection. Lent is all these things. But I also think that Lent can also be a critical season of preparation for our mission in the world.

As Christians begin their Lenten journeys around the world on Ash Wednesday, millions focus their attention on Psalm 51. Here King David pours out his heart before God in one of the most raw and honest prayers recorded in scripture. For context, David's sin with Bathsheba had just been exposed. Confronted with his failure, he does not hide from the truth, minimize what he has done, or make excuses. David simply comes before God broken, exposed, and seeks God's mercy and grace. And he prays, "God, create a clean heart for me and renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not banish me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me. Restore the joy of your salvation to me, and sustain me by giving me a willing spirit. Then I will teach the rebellious your ways, and sinners will return to you."

Notice the pattern: David first begins in honest confession, then pleads for God to cleanse and restore him. But notice where he ends up: "Then I will teach the rebellious your ways, and sinners will return to you." The journey from repentance leads David not inward and further into himself, but outward towards others who need God's grace and forgiveness, too. Repentance is not the destination; in it we find freedom to witness to others.

This is something we may understand but don't always do. We know and celebrate that confession and forgiveness are central to our life of faith and cherish the freedom that comes in honestly naming our sin and hearing again the promises of God's forgiveness spoken over us. But do we take the step that David takes and commit to telling others the Good News? When we stop pretending to have it all together and honestly acknowledge our own brokenness and need for grace, we become the kind of authentic and compelling witnesses to the Gospel that the world needs. Those who need Jesus aren't looking for perfect people to show them the way. Instead, the world needs real people who have found real hope in Christ Jesus to share the Good News.

In this Lenten season, embrace the invitation to repent in the spirit of David in Psalm 51. This is not an obligation to check off, but an opportunity to experience again God's mercy. May the Holy Spirit work in you to create a clean heart and may the joy of your salvation be restored not only to you, but also through you. Like David, may the joy of the Lord's salvation overflow out of you with a willing spirit that points others toward the God who forgives, restores, and renews. You are set free to witness.

COUNCIL CORNER

As we start the new Council year, I thought it might be nice for the congregation to know what Council is doing and thinking about each month.

First, I would like to thank the outgoing Council members especially, Karla who did a great job keeping us focused and shepherding the Council and Congregation as President. I also want to thank Alan for all his work on property and the endowment committees as well as assisting me with the budget. I hope they, as well as Jamie and James, continue to be involved as their time on Council ends.

Second, thanks to all those that serve the congregation. It is amazing at the number of folks that volunteer – whether it is occasionally, or almost every day. You not only provide a critical piece in fulfilling our mission but provide the example and inspiration for others to get involved.

Just an update on some of the recent actions of your Council ... we made significant progress on better defining our policies around the use of our campus. We made a lot of progress on improving guidelines and policies for folks that supervise and volunteer to support our youth programs ensuring our kids are in a safe and supportive environment. There is also ongoing work on HR related policies to support Pastor Jeremy and our staff.

I am excited to have Pastor Jeremy onboard and the new energy I feel in the Congregation. Please feel free to contact me or any member of the Council with any questions, comments, or concerns.
